

Stagename                Ricky Stoute

Date of Birth            23/02/69

Born in Barbados, Nationality Barbadian

Freelance singer/songwriter/entertainer/dancer

Started singing professionally at age of 17 yo, started dancing at the age of 6 till 23 yo. Studied ballet, modern, jazz and afro-caribbean dance.

Achievements: Worked with the likes of Jocelyn Brown, Mel C (from the Spice Girls), Joss Stone, Bonnie Tyler and Jamila.

Has won the Caribbean Song Contest which is equivalent to the Eurovision Song Contest in 1997, was named male vocalist in Barbados the following year.

Wrote and produced songs with saxophonist Garry Barnicle (Tina Turner, Level 42) and sang a duet with Mel C. at the Royal Albert Hall, London for Hardrock Cafe Pinktober for breast cancer awareness.

From 2002 to 2005 played the lead role as first cover Simba in the Disney musical „The Lion King“.

From 2005 to 2008 was the lead in the longest running south-african musical „African Footprint“.

Current achievements are 1/3 very popular band in London „The All-star Collectives“ where I am one of the lead vocalist.

Also I am the lead singer of the famous coverband „The Wright Thing“ of Xavier Naidoo fame.

Currently working on recordings and writing music and shorts.